Greetings unto Our populace,

We would like to send out Our many thanks to the Barony of Caer Galen, where We ascended the mighty Stag Thrones, and thank all those involved for such a grand event. We would like to give special thanks to all the participants of both the Queen's Protector and Queen's Champion Tournaments. Everyone made the day very special.

We would also like to thank the Barony of al-Barran and the good gentles there for hosting Grand Outlandish, and for the merriment enjoyed by all who attended. We also look forward to being with you as We invest a new Baron and Baroness of mighty al-Barran in the near future.

Our travels will soon take Us to the Kingdom of Calontir, where We will visit with Our friends of old and strengthen the bonds of the new at Lilies War.

As We look forward, Our thoughts turn to Estrella War. The Kingdom of the Outlands has been a Principal at Estrella War for many years. Our presence has been known both on and off the field of battle. Our artisans have shown their prowess to the Known World, and Our populace has contributed to this event with their time and energies.

We wish now to know the opinion of Our populace by reaching out with an informal survey of all members of the Kingdom. Please let Us know whether or not you believe if we, the Outlands, should continue to be a Principal Kingdom at Estrella War.

Please see the Outlands webpage for details and to give a simple yes or no. This is not a formal or official survey, but it will help Us to know the thoughts and wishes of Our populace as We look to make decisions to better Our lands.

Kingdom Seneschal

It has been such an honor to serve this glorious Kingdom but the time has come to request letters of intent for my replacement. If you are interested in serving as Kingdom Seneschal, please send your resume (both SCA and modern) to Their Majesties and me by June 30, 2009. All of our contact information can be found in this issue of the Outlandish Herald. I am available to answer any questions regarding the duties and requirements of this office.

The calendar is full but your car may not be. Carpooling is fun! Try it!

Ceah

White Stag

My belated thanks this month to THL Llywus and the shire of Drygestan for hosting a fantastic Symposium - both fun and educational for all involved. I would also like to thank all the heralds who helped with Coronation - from heralding for courts to ceremonies to field heraldry, it's amazing to watch you all make the Crown look good.

This month I would note again that I am currently looking for heralds potentially interested in taking on the office of either Rampart or White Stag in the future. I would also note that the height of camping and tourney season is upon us - please remember to drink water and wear sunscreen!

Since my last letter, Laurel has released the Letter of Acceptance and Return (aka LoAR) for the January and February decision meetings. The January Cover Letter discusses the Lingua Anglica allowance; the February CL has no items of general interest. You can track submissions yourself via the submissions website: http://submissions.outlandsheralds.org/ and see the LoARs at: http://heraldry.sca.org/loar/

Marie de Blois

Chronicler

Here I am again, after the beautiful coronation, asking for art. Did you like the cover on last months Outlandish Herald? Regardless of the answer, I bet you noticed it. YOUR EVENT can be noticed, too. Please if you wish your event to be featured, all you have to do is send mecover art for your event. It is on a first come first serve basis, so get it in early.

I am also going to ask you for articles. Do you do something especally well? Do you want to pass along your knowlege? Please send this information to me, and I will happily add it to the Outlandish Herald. If you have anything SCA related you think I might want to publish, please send it my way. I would really like to build the Outlandish Herald into a way for our enitre kingdom to share all kinds of information.

Lady Caoilinn ingen Chaoimhin Ó Taidc

Archer General

The Royal Archer tournament is coming up quickly. This year, Their Majesties have asked that the Royal Archer become a working member of retinue rather than merely a position of honor. They ask that all entrants be prepared to do their part to help with the many tasks that are needed to make a reign run smoothly, from traveling to events that the Crown will attend to assisting with set up to helping to guard Their Majesties and provide escort, not merely in court but at any time possible. While it sounds like a lot of work, the more hands to help with these duties the lighter the load for everyone. Beginning with this Royal Archer, this visible symbol of our community will take his/her place alongside the other champions, not just as a symbol but also as a working part of the retinue ensuring Their Majesties have all that they need to serve our fine kingdom.

Starting this month, I am going to try to pass on some advice to all of you to help you enjoy archery and to help you with your equipment and your shooting.

Now is the time to check your equipment. This is going to be a very busy and fun summer for all of the Archery that will be going on. Be sure to take some wax along and keep your strings tacky to the touch. One hint, I see all the time people setting their expensive bows down in the dirt. This does two things, dirt and dust on the ground gets into the string and causes a lot of damage to it. Also people may not see your bow and step on it. Try to keep your equipment off the ground. There are several types of bow stands out there.

With the camping season approaching, the opportunities for thrown weapons activities abound. All interested gentles are encouraged to participate and help thrown weapons flourish. It should be noted that the rules are being revised and will only be best with input from active participants. As such, with the anticipated growth of weapon hurlers it is imperative that all thrown weapons authorizing marshals contact Lord Jethro Stille at jethrostille@yahoo.com. This will help bring thrown weapons in line with other kingdom activities.

Kingdom Scribe

Greetings unto the populace of the Mighty Outlands!

As the reign of Alrik II and Salomea has drawn to a close and that of Maelgwn III and Sabine begins in glorious fashion, I would take a moment to thank all the scribes who created such beautiful works for the Crown. This was a great reign for the scribes, with 30 scribes completing 72 award scrolls. I must also extend my deepest thanks to the 15 amazing scribes who created multiple scrolls over the reign, and my humblest awe to Monika, Jeanne and Elizabeth with 5 scrolls each, and Medb and Bennet with 6 or more each.

I would also like to thank everyone who helped with, taught at and attended Heralds and Scribes Symposium in Drygestan. Thanks to everyone who volunteered to teach: Mistress Sarah, Mistress Cailte, Mistress Shahrnavaz, Mistress Bennet, Mistress Monika, THLady Brighid, THLord Llywus, THLady Ansteys, Lady Medb, Lady Rothin and Lady Elanor. Though some classes had to be held for later dates, the schedule was absolutely wonderful. Also, as all in attendance will attest, Mistress Monika's efforts led to the most incredible Scriptorium display I have ever had the pleasure to see. Thank you to her for coordinating, and to everyone who brought scrolls to share with us. Thanks to THL Llywus for being as unflappable as an autocrat can, to Lady Theresa for the amazing lunch and to all of Drygestan for being such warm and hospitable hosts. My deepest gratitude also goes to THLady Marie for spearheading the effort to get the Symposium rolling again after such a hiatus.

Also, please keep in mind that custom and non-standard texts are more than welcome and encouraged. To use a non-standard text, please send the wording you wish to use for approval before lettering your scroll.

As you look about, lost, a figure comes before you, a poet, feeble from long years spent mute. It is Virgil, and he will be your guide as you make your way through the trials and tribulations of Enduro North 2: Dante's Enduro!

This is the date you've been waiting for all year. Brush up on your Dante and prepare for the quest! Will you rise to the challenge, or will you falter on the path? Only time will tell for sure. There will be plenty of challenges for archers, fencers, fighters, and noncombatants alike - and if we finish the quest early enough, there is the option of lists and tournaments as well. Are you ready to face the grueling tortures of the Enduro North Trails?

There will be camping on Friday and Saturday night. If you camp, be prepared for a large campfire, surrounded by happy questers with lots of songs and stories - and more prizes for the best stories of the day's triumphs and tragedies.

Be sure to check http://niftycraft.com/enduron2 for maps to the site, hints, tips, and trivia that may help you along your way.

We know these are hard times for some; a few reduced site fees are available for site volunteers. Contact the autocrats for more information.

Check the web site at www.glorywar.org for up to date information and schedules. Come join the Barony of Unser Hafen for its twelfth annual Glory War. This year we meet on the fields of Agincourt. The Hundred Years War, lasting from 1337 until 1453, was a defining time for the history of both England and France. The war started in May 1337 when King Philip VI of France attempted to confiscate the English territories in the duchy of Aquitaine. It ended in July 1453 when the French finally expelled the English from the continent (except for Calais). The Hundred Years War was a series of chevauchees (plundering raids), sieges and naval battles interspersed with truces and uneasy peace.
Tournaments for Heavy Weapons, Rapier, Archery and Thrown Weapons are being scheduled. Arts and Sciences classes and Youth Programs will be available for all who wish to participate. Shopping and daytime activities will tempt you. The evenings will play host to various parties and social gatherings. Bardic competitions will keep all entertained. Truly something for everyone!

Free Breakfast comes with your site fee. This year the White Rose Inn will be offering an optional evening Feast Plan. The plan is limited to 80 persons. Check the Glory web site for more information and menu.

Pre-Registration and registration through ACCEPS will be available for discounted rates. Again, check the web site for all information.

Greetings, all good gentles and be of good cheer for the great Lonely Mountain Defender draws nigh! Enjoy days of frivolity, fighting and fun in the lovely high mountain meadow.

Lonely Mountain is at an elevation of approximately 9,500 feet, in the midst of the Jemez Mountains and the Santa Fe National Forest, between Los Alamos, NM, and Cuba, NM. Be prepared for hot afternoons, occasional rains, and cold nights. There is no water on site, so be sure to bring plenty. The US Forest Service will set fire restrictions, if any, at the time of the event. As in years past, please stay updated on the Forest closures and event news on our website (www.drygestan.outlands.org). Our camping is restricted to the meadow-side of the road (as in years past). There will be no merchanting. As in years past, the back-road is permanently closed. There is RV/trailer parking available, but no hook-ups, in a meadow not far from the site (about 100 yards away). Please let the Autocrat know if you are bringing an RV or travel-trailer so that we may accommodate.

Go through a gauntlet of various competitions, to become the next Defender of Dragons! Armored combatants and rapier combatants: you will have the opportunity to fight until you can't fight anymore! Stay hale and healthy so that the chirurgeonate is bored!

Directions from al-Barran and Points South: Take your best route to the northern-most Bernalillo exit (NM 550 to Cuba and Farmington) off of the King's Highway (I-25). Take NM 550 to San Ysidro. Follow Forest Road 289 until you see the site (about 2 miles). The site is on your right, in a large meadow with a medium-sized gravel parking lot in front.

The directions website, www.mapquest.com, does provide directions to the intersection of Forest Road 289 and NM 4: type in the destination of "St. Peter's Dome Road and Highway 4, Jemez, NM 87025" into the starting or ending destination box. From that intersection, you will travel down the dirt-road that is St. Peter's Dome Road about 2 miles. The site is on your right, in a large meadow with a medium-sized gravel parking lot in front.

FROM THE SABLE CHAMBER

Ciphers From The End and Post Period

By Lord Jethro Stille

After studying codes of the time, one might wonder if the cryptographic world was on the verge of a major breakthrough as the seventeenth century opened. While most cryptography would simply emulate what had already been developed, there are some famous ciphers that did evolve at that time.

A notable one came out of the court of Louis XIV of France. It was known as Le Grand Chiffre and was developed by Antoine Rossignol and his son Bonaventure. Granted Antoine was not born until 1600, but Le Grand Chiffre was in use by 1650 and it is quite probable that he developed some of his ideas from cryptographers who practiced in the heart of the SCA period. What is so notable about Le Grand Chiffre was that it was not cracked by contemporaries and it would not be until the late 1800s that it finally was deciphered! Tantalizing to historians and fans of literature was the mention of the man in the iron mask. In one deciphered letter there is mention of arresting General Viven de Bulonde for cowardice and permitting him to walk the battlements during the day in a mask.

The Rossignols code was quite complicated and was, among other things, syllabic based (encoded numbers related to different French syllables). As such, it would be unwieldy for this month's puzzle. Instead a book cipher will be used.

Book ciphers can conclusively be traced to the middle 18th century but there is some indication that pre-seventeenth century monks used them for cryptograms. The ciphers work by using a book, or other text, as a key. Each word, or letter, within the book is then assigned a corresponding number. For example, using the bible as the key, the number 1,1,1,1 could indicate the word "In" (1st book, 1st chapter, 1st verse, 1st word assuming a translation is used that starts "In the beginning").

Whether letters or whole words are used and whether or not commas are used depends upon the key. Recognize that a well chosen key will defy most attempts at frequency analysis. Therefore, the security of the message relies upon the key and how many times it is used (too much usage and frequency attacks can crack the code).

This month's puzzle will assume the monks of period created cryptograms pertinent to members of their faith. As such, this month's puzzle, including the key, will be based upon the Outlands and is potentially difficult for someone from a kingdom such as Atlantia to deduce. Obviously the key is not based upon the bible or Belshazzar.
Ah but that, fellow Outlanders, is secret writing for another day.

LAST COLUMN'S ANSWER: Last Column's puzzle was based upon Alberti's standing as a merchant and consists of original material and actual correspondence as documented in Medieval Trade in the Mediterranean World. The first few paragraphs of the solution follow:

Mind these instructions well for our fortunes therein will be gained.

First, sail from Plymouth to Falmout, 50 miles one fourth of west by south-west. Falmouth is a good harbor in any weather [for boats coming] from every direction.

There you will give apropriate brokerage feas to the brokers for the gouds they sel: Cloth of Figeac and of Cahors. Be sure though, to negotiate to not give more then one Genoese. There wil be members of that quarter, as discussed, that wil stop at not les than four times that. We canot alow that.

Come one, Come all to Pageantry in the Park! This celebration picnic of Mid-Summer will be a day of fun, and food, showcasing authenticity, heraldry, and pageantry.

Pageantry in the Park will take all the best attributes of the romantic "High Middle Ages"; heraldic display, period clothing and accouterments, and chivalric comportment, and combine them with the fun of a simple "picnic in the park". Please bring your sunshades, banners, pennons, and standards! With the emphasis on keeping as much of a medieval atmosphere as possible, all efforts will be made to "hide the mundane". Please keep soda cans, Tupperware, KFC boxes and all other mundanities hidden!

We will be holding many contests, including the Most Decadent feast, Best Heraldic Display, and a "Guilding the Lily" Contest (a display of spectacular voice heraldry ... more about this later.) There will be no fighting at this event; all fighters are encouraged to bring their Helmets and participate in the "Shiniest/Best Decorated Helmet" contest and we will have other 'competitions' as well. AND, in good Caerthan tradition, we will be playing lawn games including BOCCE BALL! There will be no specific children's events; children are encouraged to participate in all activities WITH their parents.

In the tradition of benevolence and service, we will be gathering nonperishable food items for the local food bank. The need for donations is just as great now as ever—please do what those in the SCA do best, and give abundantly. Remember that charity is one of the Knightly Virtues.

The stone pavilion picnic area is reserved from 10:00 A.M. until 2:00 P.M. for those who choose to make use of it. Stone privies are also located on site.
